FRIDAY - SUNDAY

The New England Years: A Founder's Exhibition

In the early 20th century, a group of intrepid artists, including Marie Goth, V.J. Cariani, Carl Graf, C. Curry Bohn, Fredrick Rigley, and Ken Gore, embarked on a quest for inspiration to the rugged beauty of New England. Their works, showcased in this exhibit, reveal how these iconic artists responded to the distinct character of this region, while simultaneously revealing the enduring influence of their beloved Brown County.

Discover how the rocky coastlines, quaint villages, and vibrant fall foliage of New England resonated with these pioneers of the Brown County art scene. This exhibition is a testament to the enduring spirit of artistic exploration and the profound impact of travel on the creative process.

Friday and Saturday / 11am - 5pm
Sunday 12am to 4pm
